no proposals have been received from the coll'r or the Bd. But it is however submitted that in G.O. No 613 Food dt 20.7.49, sanction has been accorded to the employment of one F.S.O & peon for procurement work in Sandur. The Bd reported in that connection that the coll'r had appointed the F.S.O. in anticipation of sanction. Presumably it is to this F.S.O. that refce has been made (at A on plante) & no action is called for on this. The papers may be lodged & stitched with the G.O. at (N)
